Applebee's is celebrating the news in two big ways. First, hungry fans can take advantage of free delivery now through Sunday, September 1 when ordering Applebee's Delivery.* And to commemorate Applebee's new partnership with NBC Sports' Football Night in America, free delivery will continue every Sunday throughout the football season (September 8 – December 29).

"This latest Applebee's Delivery innovation allows our neighbors to enjoy their favorite Applebee's dishes wherever they are," said Scott Gladstone, vice president of strategy, off-premise and development at Applebee's. "Within the casual dining category, we continue to be at the forefront of innovation in off-premise offerings, and will continue to look for ways to make enjoying our food available to our guests for any occasion. Plus, there is nothing more satisfying than having warm, delicious food delivered to you, wherever you are – with free delivery."

If customers want to make a visit to one of Applebee's restaurants but don't have time to dine-in, order Applebee's To Go® at www.applebees.com. Or, gift a delicious meal to someone special with an Applebee's gift card, available for purchase at all locations or online.
