

IHOP® Drops an NFT (New French Toast)

October 10, 2022

The Brand Also Introduces a New All Day Everyday Menu with Additions Meeting Guests' Cravings for Both Lighter and Indulgent Offerings

GLENDAL, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 10, 2022-- Today, IHOP® announced it dropped its first NFT, New French Toast. While the NFT is not a non-fungible token, you can taste and try the new Thick 'N Fluffy French Toast for yourself when dining in or to-go at participating IHOP locations. The new Thick 'N Fluffy French Toast features two slices of thick and fluffy bread dipped in a vanilla, cinnamon batter and prepared on the IHOP griddle, available in classic, strawberry banana, and lemon ricotta mixed berry flavors. Guests can redeem the Thick 'N Fluffy French Toast for only 10 PanCoins in the International Bank of Pancakes Stack Market during the first two weeks of launch.

and Avocado Toast. Additionally, the brand is introducing new dinner entrees featuring Sirloin Salisbury Steak and All-Natural Atlantic Salmon, which can be enjoyed with new lighter side options like steamed broccoli with garlic butter, yellow and green beans, or opt for a more indulgent side like loaded mashed potatoes or bacon mac & cheese.

"At IHOP, we understand guests have an endless list of decisions to make when they are hungry, including where to eat, whether to eat in or dine out, and even what to order," said Kieran Donahue, Chief Marketing Officer, IHOP. "With our new menu additions, we are looking to provide joy to our guests with more choices such as our Thick 'N Fluffy French Toast, as well as new ways to enjoy IHOP regardless of where they fall on the two sides of cravings."

Additionally, more smiles are being delivered to guests' plates as IHOP has removed high fructose corn syrup from IHOP syrups, ensuring every guest receives a delicious quality meal when they dine-in or order via IHOP 'N Go.
