The Handheld Pancake is Available All Day in a Variety of Craveable Flavors, Starting at Just $6

PASADENA, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 5, 2023-- On the heels of its largest menu evolution to-date, IHOP® is excited to serve more joy to more guests with NEW Pancake Tacos, handheld pancakes available in all day sweet and savory flavors. After a successful debut of the IHOP “Choco-Pancake” at a local Houston, TX location last summer, the team is bringing Pancake Tacos to the table nationwide, a first in the family dining space.

Along with IHOP's latest innovations, Pancake Tacos were driven by brand research which identified what guests are looking for in new menu items, including quality, choice, and value. Every decision IHOP makes is driven by guest feedback and needs, such as incorporating fresh berries and bacon, both of which are ingredient favorites that provide options for everyone, any time of day.

"As the leader in breakfast, we were inspired to expand the Pancake Taco concept following IHOP's 'Choco-Pancake' cultural innovation from last summer," said Chef Arthur Carl II, Vice President, Culinary at IHOP. "We didn't want to simply redo that item, but rather bring to life a dish that leverages our best-selling pancakes in an innovative way that is both fun and different to deliver guests a unique dining experience. These handheld pancake creations lean into our breakfast equity while giving everyone a choice on sweet or savory – or both – to enjoy during all dayparts."

Pancake vs. Taco Debate

Whether you prefer pancakes or tacos for breakfast, IHOP's Pancake Tacos satisfy every craving. Yet, the question remains: is it a Pancake or a Taco? To answer that query, IHOP has partnered with TikTok creators to weigh in on the debate. In true social media fashion, creators will turn to their followers to spark discussions on if IHOP's new Pancake Tacos are in fact a pancake or a taco and encourage others to join in by sharing #PancakeorTaco.
